SAPIENS MIGRATION SERVICES

Big data drives modern businesses and never sleeps. A well-managed, seamless migration of systems and data is essential to enhancing insurers' business performance and competitive edge.

Without a sophisticated system migration strategy, businesses can run over budget and struggle with unmanageable data operations. A faulty migration process can result in delays, inaccuracies and redundancies, not to mention unwanted encounters with bottlenecks such as stagnant data, abandoned applications and inconsistent processes.

Insurers need a strategy that meets the critical urgency to manage migration with speed and agility. They need a single focal point that reduces risk, lowers costs and boosts productivity.

SAPIENS PROVIDES:

Risk mitigation through faster, lower-cost data migration

Turnkey end-to-end solution

Quality assurance

Business continuity

FAST FORWARD YOUR MIGRATION

Sapiens oversees the transition from existing systems to new Sapiens' systems, with a focus on data transfer. The existing systems are either from other vendors or our own systems. Our extensive knowledge of Sapiens' solutions and proven best practices help ensure a smooth migration period. Sapiens' migration methodology (rapid and scaled agile) minimizes manual activities and reduces the risk of scope cutting, cost overrun and project delay.

ONE KEY, ONE SOLUTION

Backed by Sapiens' industry leading product and migration expertise, our end-to-end Migration Services include the planning and execution of all tasks. A single focal point for migration reduces risk and speeds the process, which keeps costs low and helps insurers focus on business strategy.

QUALITY, ASSURED

Sapiens Extract, Transform & Load (ETL) expertise provides comprehensive quality converted data and reconciliation reports. Sapiens assures reconciliations and revenue, with no migrated data loss.

BUSINESS, UNINTERRUPTED

Business continuity for our customers is of the utmost importance to Sapiens. As part of the deployment and delivery project, our solution minimizes delays in existing production processes. By improving data consistency across systems, processes and organizations, Sapiens minimizes customer service downtime.

Sapiens Migration Services provide the scalability, security and efficiency you need to optimize your business strategy.
